have decided to establish a co-operation relationship in the fields of teaching, scientific research and training.

With this aim in mind, the following points are agreed upon:

ARTICLE 1 - Co-operation activities

The co-operation will specifically involve:

- sending out teachers;
- an exchange of students, teachers-research assistants, graduate employees and/or office staff;
- organizing talks, seminars and scientifically-based reunions;
- an exchange of documents and scientific and pedagogical publications;
- developing programmes and teaching cycles which are considered useful for both parties.

ARTICLE 2 - Fields of Application

Both contracting parties foresee an active co-operation in the field of endophytic fungi of some potential medicinal plants of North East India, and in particular in the isolation and chemical and biological characterization of biomolecules produced by these fungi.

ARTICLE 3 - Regulations for the Exchange

Both contracting parties will carry out the exchange of personnel as set out in article 1 of this agreement:

- under the form of short visits (conferences, talks, seminars, workshops)
- under the form of medium-length visits (between 4 and 6 weeks).

Every year the number of personnel will be agreed upon reciprocally (up to a maximum of five) who will take part in the exchange, as well as the length of the mission.

With regard to the exchange students they will have to pay their university fees for their own country.

ARTICLE 4 - Exchange of documents

The two Institutions involved will reciprocally give information on their own publications as well as on their teaching and research programmes.

They will exchange, in the fields defined in the agreement, scientific publications, periodicals and eventually non-periodicals.

ARTICLE 5 - Resources

The two Institutions in the agreement will aim at trying to find financial help and resources which will help in carrying out the objectives as defined in the present agreement.

ARTICLE 6 - Length

The present agreement will last for three years and, on its expiry, can be renewed for a further period, with the consent of the Structure(s) involved. Each of the parties will be able to withdraw from the agreement by giving notice six months beforehand. The present agreement will take effect after the signing of this agreement by the competent authorities of the two Institutions.
