The 45th Annual Conference of the Indian Econometric Society (TIES) is being organized by the Department of Economics, Gauhati University from 8th to 10th January 2009.

Established in the year 1948, Gauhati University, a premier institution of teaching and research in the Northeastern Region, is currently celebrating its Diamond Jubilee. The Department of Economics is one of the founder Departments of the University. The Department currently offers MA/MSc, M.Phil and Ph D programmes. The MA/MSc programme has over 120 students.

The University is well connected with road, rail and air transport. The Lokapriya Gopinath Bordoloi International Airport is at a distance of 12 kms. The Guwahati Railway Station is also 12 kms. away and the Inter State Bus Terminus (ISBT) is just 7 kms. away.

Guwahati: the gateway to the Northeast

Guwahati – Assam's biggest city is located on the south bank of the mighty Brahmaputra river. The city is also known as the 'Panchatirtha' or the seat of five pilgrimage – the shrines of Mother Goddess Kamakhya, Umananda (the Peacock Island), Nabagraha Temple, Basisthashram and Aswaklanta. There are many places of tourist interest in and around Guwahati. Kaziranga National Park, famous for the one horned rhino, is only 217 kms. away. Shillong, the Scotland of the East is just 103 kms. away.

The weather of Guwahati during December-January is very pleasant. However in January the nights can be quite chilly. Delegates are advised to bring woolens with them. The temperature around this time usually ranges between minimum of 8^o and maximum of 25^o Celsius.

Registration

Filled-in registration form along with Demand Draft or crossed cheque of SBI Core Banking Branches for Rs 600/- per member of TIES and Rs 1000/- for each non/accompanying member drawn in favour of 'Organising Committee, 45th Annual Conference of TIES' payable at Guwahati to be sent to the Organising Sectary, 45th Annual Conference of TIES, Department of Economics, Gauhati University, Guwahati 781014.
