

Gauhati University organizes a lecture series to be delivered by eminent scientist Prof. Saurav Pal

The Department of Chemistry, Gauhati University is organizing a series of Lectures from May 24-27, 2016 by Prof. Saurav Pal, former Director of National Chemical Laboratory, Pune. An eminent scientist and academician, Prof. Pal is a visiting professor to the Department of Chemistry, Gauhati University and Professor of Chemistry in IIT, Bombay.

As a visiting Professor to the Department of Chemistry, Gauhati University, Prof. Pal will be delivering Prof. R. K. Boruah Memorial Lecture on May 24, 2016 in Gauhati University and also address school students in a Popular Science Lecture on May 25, 2016. This programme is being organized by Department of Chemistry, Gauhati University and Chemical Society, Cotton College. In addition, Prof. Pal will be the Key-note Speaker during the National Symposium on Emerging Trends in Chemical Sciences which is being organized by Department of Chemistry Gauhati University on May 27, 2016.

---

The lecture series is scheduled as follows:

Prof. R. K. Boruah memorial lecture on May 24, 2016: venue- P. D. Hall, Gauhati University; 11.00 am organized by Department of Chemistry, Gauhati University and Society for Chemical Education, Assam

A popular Science talk for School students on May 25, 2016: Venue- Sudmerson Hall, Cotton College; 11.00 am, organized by Department of Chemistry, Gauhati University and Chemical Society, Cotton College

Key note talk in the National Symposium on Emerging Trends in Chemical Sciences. May 27, 2016 : venue- Department of Chemistry; 9.30 am, organized by Department of Chemistry Gauhati University.