DEPARTMENT OF ECONOMICS, GAUHATI UNIVERSITY – 781014

THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION, Department of Economics, Gauhati University was formed as a voluntary organization of the past pupils of the Department of Economics, Gauhati University. Its intention was to create a common platform for promoting and fostering mutually beneficial interaction between the alumni and the present students, as well as among the alumni themselves. The Department is now gearing to reactivate and re-energize the Alumni Association so that it can claim its rightful place in all the departmental activities.

The Department envisages that from 2017 onwards the highly successful ECO-FEST (which was formerly hosted by the Assam Economic Association), shall now be co-hosted with the Alumni Association. This will present an opportunity for all the present and past students of Economics to have an annual get-together for sharing experiences, showcasing talents and celebrate the Department.

Moreover, the Department of Economics is hosting the 18th North Eastern Economic Association (NEEA) Conference on December 16-17, 2016. The Alumni Association has a critical role to play as part of the hosting department. The Association specially invites all alumni to formally join the Association and participate in this grand event.
